

The CoSE-Network of

Communities of Sustainable Europe

as Associated Partner of invites your communities (villages and urban neighbourhoods) to become a 'sustainable community'

and therefore presents the CoSE - roadmap

see: www.communities-of-sustainable.eu and click 'CoSE roadmap, how to become a sustainable community'

An initiative of the communities of Ashton Hayes (UK), Beckerich (L), Betjejem (PL), Blacon (UK), Błcs and Bükkaranyos (H), Brestovitz, Gorna Malina and Kostinbrod (BG), De Stoere Houtman (NL), Feldheim (D), Measolle (F), Ommerkanaal (NL), Schönau (D), Strem (A) and Freiburg-Vauban (D)

The CoSE-Network of Communities of Sustainable Europe

also presents the new CoF-network of Communities of the Future

a developing co-operation between authorities, universities and communities, which carry and organize their own responsibilities on Architecture, Care, Culture and History, Economy, Education, Energy, External Contacts and Co-operation, Food and Waste, Integration, Housing, Mobility, Nature, Public Space and/or Social Security (www.communities-of-the-future.org)

For more information meet co-ordinator Jaap Huurman, today 24th of June 2013, by phoning me on +31.6.24240111 or send an email later to 'our' own grass-roots-community of De Stoere Houtman in Arnhem, the Netherlands: jaaphuurman@destoerehoutman.nl

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jaap Huurman', with a horizontal line underneath.

Jaap Huurman

